“Nothing Sold Today” Fine (Friendly Edition)

A two-use sheet. Use A: the price tag that never found its buyer, tastefully issued a fine. Use B: after sale day, note which tables sold nothing so next year's pack starts there. Warm, local, nobody gets hurt — the fine is payable in iced tea and fun.

GARAGE SALE PACK · FORM 7-A

Serial no. _____

OFFICIAL FINE NOTICE

issued under Section 1 of the “Tables Don't Move Themselves” statutes

| | |
|---|---|
| Item (or person) to be fined | _____ |
| Reason (choose bravely) | ☐ never opened its box ☐ avoided sunlight all summer ☐ simply priced itself wrong ☐ other: _____ |
| Witnessed and confirmed by | _____ date: _____ |

Fine assessed: $ _____ — suggested: one potted fern, two cold iced teas, or a “I will list you online” promise

| | |
|---|---|
| Payment terms | ☐ payable immediately in iced tea ☐ payable if the item eventually sells online |
| Appeals office | the kitchen table, tonight, milk and cookies provided |
| Signed | _____ fine officer on duty |

NO-SOLD-TODAY · STILL FINE

Use B — quiet-table postmortem (what did not move)

Fill this in at close. Items that sold nothing — and where they finally went — are the whole point of recording a sale: you'll look back next year and know exactly what happened.

| Table that sold little or nothing | Final destination | Change for next year |
|---|---|---|
| | ☐ donated ☐ listed online ☐ stays | |
| | ☐ donated ☐ listed online ☐ stays | |
| | ☐ donated ☐ listed online ☐ stays | |
| | ☐ donated ☐ listed online ☐ stays | |
| | ☐ donated ☐ listed online ☐ stays | |

Heading to a resale lot? Fold this panel in half and it slides into your reseller's lot-records wallet — Sheet 8's log lines line up, item by item, so you can key the “kept” rows straight into your next online listing batch.